TERTIARY EXCELLENCE SCHOLARSHIP 2023

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

This scholarship is offered to Ngāi Tukairangi Hapu descendants who are beneficiaries of the Ngāi Tukairangi Trust. The award seeks to acknowledge those students that are studying at a level or in an area of study that deserves special recognition, and to recognise the contribution made by Louis Te Kani to preserve the tikanga and kawa of Ngāi Tukairangi hapu and promote the values of community and whanaungatanga.

CRITERIA

The successful applicant will be expected to attend the Ngāi Tukairangi Trust Annual General Meeting to make a presentation of their achievements and their aspirations for the future. The Trustees reserve the right not to award the Scholarship of Excellence if a suitable applicant can not be found.

1. Applicants should be in their final year of study towards their first degree, studying towards a master's thesis, enrolled in an MPhil or PhD or studying towards a specialist area of study. The Ngāi Tukairangi Trust is keen to receive applications from students who can demonstrate a balanced approach to cultural, academic aspirations, and horticultural studies.
2. Please submit an essay of between 1,000 and 1,500 words outlining how your studies would contribute to Whanau, Hapu and Iwi development, outlining in your view what you believe to be important aspects of development for our people in the next twenty years.
3. Please attach three references:
 - Academic Reference
 - Kaumatua Reference
 - Character Reference

IMPORTANT NOTE - Attach this cover sheet to essay and references

1. Name in Full: _____

2. Area of Study and Year: _____

3. Applicants Signature: _____
